

Living in the Maine Woods Townhomes on Lancaster Street gives you an all-access pass to the best that Bangor has to offer. Here's what you can look forward to:

- Public Parks: You're minutes away from Essex Woods Park, which offers walking trails and a serene pond, ideal for outdoor relaxation and family outings.
- Healthcare Facilities: St. Joseph Hospital and Northern Light Eastern Maine Medical Center are both within a short drive, ensuring prompt medical care whenever needed.
- Educational Institutions: While nearby schools include Bangor High School and Mary Snow School, all of Bangor's K-12 schools are high-performing, and easily accessible from Maine Woods, offering quality education for families with children.
- Shopping Centers: Just a quick drive, and you're at the Broadway Shopping Center, where you can find a variety of retail outlets and grocery stores, including Hannaford's, TJ Maxx, and a card and stationery store.
- Public Transport: The Community Connector bus service has several routes that pass close by, making it convenient to move around the city without a car.
- Fitness Centers: Planet Fitness is just down the road, also nearby a new Orangetheory is coming soon, between the two, residents of Maine Woods have easy access to a variety of fitness classes and equipment.
- Social Hubs: Within the vicinity, you'll find local favorites like Novio's Bistro and the Sea Dog Brewing Company, perfect spots to grab a meal or enjoy an evening out.
- Cultural Venues: The Bangor Public Library and the Penobscot Theatre Company are both cultural staples in Bangor, providing a variety of educational and entertainment options.
- Husson University: Strategically located just minutes away from the esteemed Husson University, making it an ideal home for those looking to stay close to academic excellence and vibrant campus life.
- Veteran-Specific Services: The Maine Veterans' Home and the CareerCenter Veterans Services are both nearby, offering specialized support and resources.